

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release:
May 19, 2016

Contact: Shannon Roberts,
Publications Manager
Kentucky Bar Association
(502) 564-3795, ext. 224
sroberts@kybar.org

STATE LAW LIBRARIAN JENNIFER L. FRAZIER AWARDED THE KENTUCKY BAR ASSOCIATION'S 2016 BRUCE K. DAVIS BAR SERVICE AWARD

FRANKFORT, Ky. – State Law Librarian Jennifer L. Frazier was awarded the Kentucky Bar Association's 2016 Bruce K. Davis Bar Service Award at the membership luncheon on Friday, May 13, during the association's annual convention. President Douglass Farnsley from Louisville, Ky., presented the award.

The Bruce K. Davis Bar Service Award is given to attorneys who take time from their practices to provide personal, professional and financial support to the Kentucky Bar Association. This award expresses the appreciation and respect for such dedicated professional service. All members of the association are eligible in any given year except for current officers and members of the Board of Governors.

Frazier has served as the State Law Librarian for the Commonwealth for the last 10 years. She started in the library in 2003 as a staff attorney. Before coming to the library she was a staff attorney for Don Smith Law Offices. Frazier is a Commissioner on the Kentucky Access to Justice Commission. She has been a guest speaker at several conferences including the Equal Justice Conference, National Legal Aid and Defenders Association, Kentucky Library Association Annual Meeting and was featured in an episode of the NBC series Who Do You Think You Are?

Frazier received her B.A. in history from Northern Kentucky University and her J.D. from the Brandies School of Law at the University of Louisville and Masters in Library and Information Science from the University of Kentucky. She is a member of the Kentucky Bar Association, American Association of Law Librarians, Kentucky Library Association, and the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Librarians.

-- 30 --